

JENNIFER DE LA FUENTE

PROJECT EXPERIENCE

- Presently doing web and graphic design work for clients on a freelance basis. My portfolio can be found at <http://www.jrosebud.com/designs>.
- Have done work for more than 15 clients since 2005. Projects include designing an athletic logo for Goldey-Beacom College in Wilmington, DE, and designing the website for CROQ Zine (<http://www.croqzine.com>).
- Served as secretary of the Graphic Communications Club at Sacramento City College for the 2006-2007 school year. Was project manager for 12 design projects, which entailed coordinating with team members, talking to clients and presenting designs.

WORK EXPERIENCE

2005-present The Sacramento Bee Sacramento, CA

Sports copy editor/Wire editor/High school intern supervisor

- Duties include editing staff and wire copy. As the wire editor, duties include sorting through the various wire services and choosing stories to run, and compiling roundups and notes packages. Also post stories throughout the news cycle to the newspaper's website. As intern supervisor, I train and supervise 12 high school students who take phone calls and scores for the newspaper.

Oct. 2001-June 2005 The News Journal New Castle, DE

Sports copy editor

- Became sports copy editor in August 2003. Duties included laying out several interior pages and editing stories.

EDUCATION

2006-present Sacramento City College Sacramento, CA

- Working toward Associate of Science degree in Graphic Communications.

1997-2000 University of Southern California Los Angeles, CA

- Earned Bachelor of Arts degree in print journalism in December 2000 with 3.45 GPA.

SKILLS

Proficient in Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator, Dreamweaver, QuarkXpress, Adobe InDesign, Fireworks and web page design and editing.

MEMBERSHIPS

Member of Sacramento ADAC, the Art Directors and Artists Club, since March 2007.